STRIKE SITUATION IS BRIGHTER

PREMIER SHIDEHARA FORMS CABINET FOR SANE GOVERNMENT

SHIGERU YOSHIDA, FOREIGN MINISTER, IS OPPOSED TO MILITARISM

TOKYO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Aging, dapper Premier Kijuro Shidehara completed his "safe and sane" government for a hungry, restless Japan today, and planned the first meeting of his 15-man cabinet immediately, even before reporting its roster to the emperor—an unprecedented procedure.

Domei news agency said he would outline bluntly the headaches ahead for the new government, which most observers say cannot survive more than a few months.

A brand new domestic trouble was added to Shidehara's burdens today—strikes. More than 6,000 Korean coal miners in the Yubari mine near Sapporo, Hokkaido, have struck, Domei news agency said, and the "unrest seems to be spreading" to an adjoining mine. Cause of the strike was not announced.

Toyoda Accepts.

Acceptance by Adm. Soyemu Toyoda of navy portfolio completed the new cabinet. All, said Secretary Daisaburo Tsugia are likely to meet with General MacArthur's approval. Tsugita also predicted that "another new cabinet will be formed by political party men when a majority party comes out of the general elections" next January.

Baron Shidehara drew heavily upon parliamentarians—and untried liberals—to make up his new government.

Average age of the new ministers it 61. They are (including five holdovers from the previous cabinet):

Premier Shidehara, 73, career diplomat tackling his first big domestic job.

Foreign Minister Shigeru Yoshida, 67, a hold-over who, like Shidehara, had opposed Nippon's militarist clique.

Home Minister Zenjiro Horikiri, 61, career government official.

Finance Minister Young.

Finance Minister Keizo Shibusawa, 49, financier.

Commerce and Industry Minister, Sankuro Ogasawara, 60, parliamentarian and businessman.

Agriculture and Forestry Minister Kenzo Masumura, 62, parliamentarian who has been parliamentary vice-minister.

War Minister Lt. Gen. Sadashi Shimomura, 58, militarist. (Also a holdover.)

Navy Minister Adm. Soyema Toyoda, 60-year-old militarist who commanded the Yokosuka naval base where occupation forces made their first amphibious landings on Japan.

Justice Minister Dr. Chuzo Iwata, 70, lawyer, also a holdover from the previous cabinet.

Welfare Minister Dr. Hitoshi Ashida, 48, parliamentarian, author and member of the house of representatives.

Another Holdover.

Education Minister Tamon Maeda, 61, journalist, another holdover.

SOME INFORMATION ABOUT ATOMIC BOMB IS BEING RELEASED

STORY OF CONSTRUCTION GREAT OAK RIDGE PLANT FIRST TOLD

Many were the human problems met by General Groves and his aides as the Army drove through the atomic bomb project, handicapped by the necessity for strange new equipment for which even its makers did not know the uses; by the need for 500,000 men to take jobs without knowing what they were to do or why (How they succeeded, and the factors which entered into their successes, is told, by Howard W. Blakeslee, science editor of the Associated Press, in a new and exclusive series of stories on atomic developments beginning today in the Corsicana Daily Sun.)

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor.

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The atomic bomb project here, in plant construction alone, was equivalent to building one Panama Canal each year for three years.

The project was in three parts, science, industrial fabrication and the army. The army's job was to make the project go, to keep on schedule, finish in time to win, with a working force that finally numbered about 500,000, bigger than any great company's payroll, and all secret.

Head man of the "go" phase was Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves. Chief Deputy was Col. Kenneth D. Nichols. Two women probably knew the inside. One was Miss Virginia Olsson, of Calais, Maine, secretary of Brig. Gen. Marshall who first headed the project, and afterward, throughout, for Col. Nichols. The other was Mrs. Jean O'Leary, Graves' secretary.

Code Names Used.

Code names were used for some of the chief personages. General Groves was variously referred to as Gus, the Lone Ranger, the Headless Horseman, Gen. and 99. Ninety-nine was the way his penned initials

GENERAL YAMASHITA WILL FACE CHARGES ON OCTOBER 29TH

BIG, SWAGGERING "TIGER OF MALAYA" PLEADED NOT GUILTY

MANILA, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Boastful Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, erstwhile "Tiger of Malaya," pleaded innocent of war crime today after his counsel said the American army had no case against him—and immediately the prosecution countered with a bill of particulars that accused the men of his command of 64 atrocities in the Philippines.

Torture, mutilation, and massacre of more than 25,000 noncombatant men, women and children, were listed.

The atrocities were not attributed to Yamashita himself. Since his trial, scheduled to begin Oct. 29, is to be the first of a round-the-world series involving war criminal suspects, the question of responsibility held by the Imperial general for acts of the troops under his command was a precedent-setting point.

Pleads Not Guilty.

The big ,noisy Yamashita, who swaggered to victory for Japan in Malaya then hid in the hills when the Americans came back for the Philippines, pleaded a belligerent and almost arrogant "not guilty!" to charges that he failed to deter his men from brutal atrocities while he commanded Japanese forces in the Philippines.

A United States military commission of five generals heard his plea, immediately fixed the date of the trial and directed that it be held in the war-scarred foromer residence of the Philippine high commissioner.

The 59-year old "Tiger of Malaya" won one round and lost one at the start of his fight for life. Soft-voiced Chief Counsel Mol. Harry E. Clarke of Altoona, Pa., obtained the appointment of Yamashita's former chief of staff and deputy chief of staff Lt. Gen. Muto and Maj. Gen. Utsonofiya, to the deense counsel staff—a surprising move in view of the fact that both are being held in new Bilibid prison as war criminal suspects.

Fails In Dramatic Move.

Clarke failed in a dramatic move to have the charges against the droopy-jowled general stricken altogether on the grounds they failed to state a single violation of the laws of war on the part of the accused. He won a small concession, however, when the commission's presiding officer, Maj. Gen. R. B. Reynolds of Dundee, Mich., ordered the prosecution to supply the defense with

Tigers	7	12
Cubs	8	15

Winning pitcher—Borowy.
Losing pitcher—Trout.
Time of game—3:28.

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Stanley Hack plastered a hit into left with two out and a man on second in the 12th inning today to drive in a run and give the Chicago Cubs an 8 to 7 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the sixth game of the world series, and knot the set-up at three victories each.

Play By Play

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers, needing but one victory to win the 1945 world series, sent their husky young righthander, Virgil Trucks, to the hill against the Chicago Cubs in the sixth game here today.

Opposing Trucks, who trimmed the Cubs 4-1 in the second game of the series, was Claude Passeau, 36-year-old Chicago righthander who shut out Detroit with a single hit in the third contest. Passeau was working with only two days of rest.

Roy Hughes, regular Cubs shortstop, returned to the line-up after having been out of yesterday's game with a bruised ankle, hit in batting practice. The day was chilly, with the temperature hovering in the high 40s, and the sun was peeping out only at intervals when the game began.

The Starting Lineups:

Detroit (AL): Webb, ss; Mayo, 2b; Cramer, cf; Greenberg, lf; Cullenbine rf; York, 1b; Outlaw, 3b; Richards, c; Trucks, p.

Chicago (NL): Hack, 3b; Johnson, 2b; Lowrey, lf; Cavarretta, 1b; Pafko, cf; Nicholson rf; Livingston c; Hughes ss; Passeau, p.

Cubs: The crowd was about 44,000. Hack walked. Johnson sacrificed, York to Mayo. Lowrey flied out, Hack holding second. Cavarretta went out, Webb to York. No runs, no hits, no errors one left.

SECOND INNING

Tigers: Greenberg flied out. Cullenbine carried the count to 3-2 and then walked. Rudy York connected for a double sending Cullenbine to third. Outlaw was purposely passed, filling the sacks. Richards walked, forcing in Cullenbine with the game's first run. Trucks popped out. the runners holding their bases. Webb bounced to Hughes who stepped on second to force Richards for the third out. One run, one hit, no errors, three left.

Cubs: Pafko shot a ground single through the box and into centerfield. Nicholson fouled out to York. Livingston forces Pafko at second, Mayo to Webb, but Webb made a wild throw past first and Livingston tore out for second. Richards recovered the ball and pegged to Webb, who put the ball on Livingston for a double play. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

THIRD INNING

Tigers: Mayo went out, Johnson to Cavarretta. Cramer popped out, Greenberg went out, Hughes to Cavarretta. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs: Hughes struck out swinging. Passeau also was a strikeout victim. Hack singled. Johnson flied to Cramer. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

FOURTH INNING

Tigers: Cullenbine reached first when Johnson booted his easy roller. York popped out foul. Johnson threw Outlaw out at first, Cullenbine taking second. Richards was purposely walked. Trucks worked Passeau for a pass, filling the bases. Both Passeau and Livingston protested vigorously. Webb sent Pafko far back to take his fly. No runs, no hits, one error, three left.

Cubs: Lowrey was called out on strikes. Cavarretta smashed a single into centerfield. Pafko lined out. Nicholson popped out. No runs one hit, no errors, one left.

FIFTH INNING

Tigers: Mayo rolled out, Hack to Cavarretta. Cramer flied to Lowrey. Greenberg also flied out to Lowrey. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cubs: With two strikes against him, Livingston lined a single to center. Hughes laid down a bunt toward first, and was safe when Rudy York fell fielding the ball. It was ruled a hit. Passeau slapped a ball at Trucks, and all hands were safe when Trucks' throw to third was too late to get Livingston. It was a fielder's choice. Hack singled to center, scoring Livingston and Hughes. When Cramer's throw-in went through Richards, Passeau went to third and Hack to second. It was an error for Richards. Johnson rolled out, Mayo to York. Lowrey walked, filling the bases. Cavarretta singled to center scoring Passeau and Hack. George Caster relieved Trucks for the Tigers. Pafko popped. Nichol-

POLICE SEEK MAN WANTED ON CHARGE OF SLAYING WOMAN

HOUSTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Eastern police pressed a search today for a 40-year-old man, wanted in the slaying of Elnora Collins, 30 whose burned and nearly nude body was found last week in a woods near Beaumont.

Detective Inspector C. V. Kern of Houston indicated the search was centering around Washington where the estranged wife of the hunted man resides.

Washington officers told Kern the woman said her husband had made two local telephone calls to her in Washington, once last Thursday and again Friday, urging her to meet him. She told authorities she was frightened by his "strange manner" and refused both requests.

The body of pretty Miss Collins, clad only in bobby socks and oxfords, was found Wednesday at a lonely wooded spot near Beaumont. The head and top part of the body were charred as though gasoline had been poured on the

ABOLISHING OF SHINTOISM AS STATE RELIGION OF JAPAN MAY PROVE KEY TO REFORMATION

By DEWITT MACKENIE
Ap Foreign Affairs Analyst

Washington's decision to abolish shinto as a state religion in Japan may prove to be the key to that misguided country's reformation for much of the hold which the militarists had on the people was attributed to the fact that the governmen spoke hrough he mouh of sacred shinto.

Lest there be some who fear this is a blow at freedom of worship it should be said that it is not. The plan merely dissociates the religion from the very obvious evils of government control, but leaves the individual Japanese the right to worship as he chooses. If he clings to the ancestor and hero worship, which is the basis of shinto (the way of the Gods) then it is his pregrogative to do so.

The shinto—state setup has been a natural" for the industrial tycoons and militarists, who have worked hand in hand to conquer neighboring states and reduce them to vassalage. Government schemes, which ordinarily might have been objectionable to many of the Japanese public, became acceptable when passed down via the shinto route.

The efficacy of this dual control was mulipiled by the fact that the Mikado was head of both state and religion. As a direct descendent of the Sun-Goddess Amaterasi he is regarded by a goodly portion of his subjects as a living god

Because of this circumstance it strikes me as almost a foregone conclusion that Hirohito must abdicate as Emperor when the separation of religion and state becomes effective. Obviously he can't hold both positions, and it looks as though fate has selected the one which he must abandon for while a god may discard temporal rule it's hard to see how he can divest himself of a divinity which Japanese legend says runs back 2600 years and more.

CONSTRUCTION OF AIRPORT NEAR CITY IS BEING PLANNED

NEED OF EXPANSIONS FOR P. AND S. HOSPITAL PRESENTED COMMISSIONERS

Preliminary work done toward the securing of adequate airport facilities for Corsicana and Navarro county was outlinel before the regular meeting of the commissioners court Mondy and what is expected of the city and county also was detailed. Physicians of the Navarro county hospital board brought to the attention of the court the need of expansions at the P. and S. Hospital in the near future. The commissioners authorized advertising for bids for the leasing of the county farm for 1946 and needed repairs to the boiler in the powerhouse providing heat to the jail and courthouse. Attention of the commissioners was called to leaks at various points in the courthouse Monday morning during the hard downpour of rain. Claims were allowed except as noted on the claim docket. The court was in session Monday afternoon. All members of the court was present.

Definite Airport Plans

F. H. Harvey, Jr., chairman of the aviation committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, said that definite plans had been made for an airport here, and reminded those present that in his opinion a county and city without airport facilities would be a back number in the future. He outlined the inquiries of prosepctive industries that includes one of the first questions is airport facilities. He said the old airport site on the Corsicana-Emhouse road near Zion's Rest was the most suitable in this immediate area, and that Danny Nicholson had leased that acreage for 20 years and had purchased some of the land needed in the proposed airport.

Nicholson detailed preliminary work done by him and others. The long run-way north and south will be 41000 feet and the eastwest shorter runway will be 3100 feet ample to care for needs for years to come.

City May Build Hangar

Mayor John C. Calhoun termed a city-county airport a necessity and said the CAA had selected the site. He estimated that there will be one plane for each 500 people within a few years, and spoke of the feeder plane traffic. He stated that he beleived it was "Abso-

PRODUCTION FIRST CONSIDERATION IN TEXAS REFINERIES

FULL COOPERATION PROMISED NAVAL OFFICER IN CHARGE OF PLANTS

HOUSTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—Production is the first consideration in the oil refinery plants in the gulf coast area, Lt. Comdr. F. A. Westphall, U. S. N., District officer in charge of the refineries said today.

Commander Westphall reached Houston yesterday and is opening offices in the office of the Inspector of Naval Material. With him in a staff of Naval Officers and enlisted personnel.

A naval officer will be stationed at each of the refineries, Westphall said, and will be responsible to him for the operation of the plant.

"I have talked with a number of officials of the oil workers International union, and they have promised full cooperation to bring the refineries back into production and to maintain production." Westphall said.

All Along Gulf Coast

The district which Westphall will supervise extends from the Mississippi River to the Mexican border. It includes 25,000 workers and embraces approximately one-third the total membership of the International union.

More workmen turned out for the morning shift today and the staffs at each of the units was close to normal, it was reported from the plants.

Maintenance men have been going over the units placing them in readiness for the operators to start up refining work. All Houston refineries are expected to be back in full production by the end of the week.

Plants seized in Houston include the Shell, Sinclair, Texas Company and Crown Central Refineries and the Sinclair and Texas Pipeline Companies.

Back In Operation

Refineries, strike-bound for two weeks, were back in operation in Texas today but Houston representatives of the oil workers International union (CIO) served notice that the fight for 30 per cent wages will continue through negotiations.

Meanwhile, in the great Permian Basin of West Texas and New Mexico pickets were stationed in some areas but drilling operations had not been curtailed.

General Patton Has Taken Over His New Commnad

BAD TOELZ, Germany, Oct. 8—(AP)—Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., who led the Third Army spearhead of the Allied drive across France and Germany, today was in command of a few troops doing research work—the 15th Army.

The 59-year old general swallowed hard when a band struck up "Auld Lang Syne" yesterday as he handed over the Third Army flag to his successor, Lt. Gen. Lucian K. Truscott, Jr.

"All good things must come to an end," Patton told 400 troops standing sad-faced before him in a dramatic ceremony forced indoors because of rain.

"The best thing that has ever come to me is the honor and privilege of having commanded the Third Army. x x x Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on your valor and devotion to duty, and my fervent gratitude for your unwavering loyalty."

Truscott, in accepting the command, told Patton:

"It is only in a sense that you take leave of this army, for as long as any man who has served under you shall live, your place will remain secure in his heart."

Patton was transferred from command of the Third Army after criticism of the military government in his occupational zone in Germany.

Aircraft Plant Strike Ended.

GOVERNMENT RENEWS EFFORTS TO SETTLE SOFT COAL STRIKE

INDICATIONS WERE THAT 200,000 WORKERS RETURN TO JOBS THIS WEEK

By The Associated Press

The government today renewed efforts to end the soft coal strike, biggest trouble spot in the National labor situation which elsewhere was brighter than it was last week.

There were indications that the strike lines, which hit a record high of some 550,000 last week, would drop to around 350,000 if back-to-work orders this week were obeyed.

But violence broke out again in the eight-months-old Hollywood motion picture strike. Other devolpoments included the ignoring of a strike call by 3,500 New York metropolitan area express truck drivers, and the failure of thousands of New York Longshoremen to return to work and break a tie-up of port shipping.

As the soft coal conferences were resumed in Washington, John L. Lewis, leader of 163,000 miners away from the pits, was absent. He was expected to join the conferees later today.

Some 600 Pits Idle

The strike has shut down some 600 pits in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana and has threatened to spread nationally.

In Hollywood, at least 12 strikers and two policemen were injured in fighting at the entrance to the Warner Brothers studio as law officers cleared a passageway for workers. It was at the same gates that some 25 persons were injured Friday in a similar melee.

In Detroit, back-to-work movements affecting more than 65,000 workers started in the Ford and Hudson Motor Company and the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Company plants. The situation there was the brightest in weeks during which about 80,000 persons were off the job in the automobile industry because of labor controversies.

Across Border

Across the International boundary from Detroit, however, the strike of approximately 10,000 Ford employes in Windsor, Ont., became more serious when factory power plants were shut down.

Return to work over the nation included the 43,000 oil workers in 51 refineries and plants in 15 states which were seized by the government after collapse of negotiation: on a CIO union's demand for a 30 per cent wage rate increase.

New York Longshoremen, however, failed to resume handling cargoes despite a vote by some of the 63 AFL locals involved to resume work pending negotiations with the New York shipping Association for a new contract.

A spokesman for the local which led the walkout of about 35,000 to 60,000 men last week said his group's policy was "no contract, no work and the government can step in any time it gets ready."

The dispute has tied up shipping in the port of New York.

Key Strike Ended

A strike at the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Co., which has kept 4,500 off their jobs since Aug. 23 was

LAVAL REPORTED BE LOCKED IN DUNGEON AS HIS TRIAL OPENS

FORMER PREMIER OF FRANCE REFUSED TO REAPPEAR IN COURT

PARIS, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Pierre Laval was reported by court attendants to be locked in a dungeon beneath the Palais de Justice today as the fourth day of his treason trial started late without the swarthy defendant on hand.

The former premier's lawyers consulted Judge Paul Mongibeaux and told him Laval refused to "associate myself with a judicial crime." Thus, the former Vichy chief of government was maintaining a decision he reached Saturday not to attend the trial for his life.

Part of the hour and 33 minutes delay was caused by the absence of one of the resistance jurors, Jean Germinal. He was replaced by one of the two remaining substitute jurors. Twelve of the jurors are from Parliament; the other 12 are from resistance movement which opposed Germany and the Vichy government during the occupation.

Main Witness Delayed.

The main witness of the day, Gen. Doyen, was delayed in reaching Paris because his plane was fog-bound. This also contributed to the slow start.

Continuation of proceedings against the former Vichy chief of government hinged upon the appearance of 12 members of the parliamentary jury.

Parliamentary jurors already have begun to absent themselves to conduct personal political campaigns for the Oct. 21 election.

Juror Georges Levy-Alphandary announcerd yesterday he was "tired and would not attend" further sessions.

Laval was taken to the dismal

CORSICANA, TEX., OCT. 9, 1945

ARGENTINE SITUATION

Peron, it appears, needed a front in the coup of 1943. Arturo Rawson supplied the front. With him as figurehead the coup had a chance to succeed which it would not have had with Peron leading. With the government offices once seized, the Colonels first dropped Rawson, then kicked him upstairs into a diplomatic post in Brazil. Rawson seems to have found he could not stomach the Peron method, so resigned. An anti-Peron group, which has come more and more to represent the majority of the Argentine people, tried the other day to get the government away from the Peron gang, with Rawson leading the revolt.

The Rawson group seems to have underestimated Peron's power; and for the moment it lost, Rawson was jailed, and so were the managers of the liberal newspapers. A state of siege was declared and repressive measures were taken. At last word the newspaper men were allowed to go free. The rioting and disturbance since the failure of the Rawson coup appears to be a real popular uprising. The Peron gang seems frightened and unsure of its position. A government securely backed by its citizens does not need to take harsh, repressive action. With every manifestation of Peron's insecurity, the popular uprising gains force.

The hopeful fact is that the Argentine people are sufficiently sick of their overloards to want to take matters into their own hands. They are determined to get the free elections promised for this fall. The Act of Chapultepec gives the other American nations a chance to uphold the people against these usurpers.

LOSS OF FACE

People who read that Emperor Hirohito has paid a visit to General MacArthur at the latter's headquarters are apt to wonder why the excitement about it. To them it seems a lot of fuss over an obvious courtesy. But it is not.

In the Orient, the quality called "face" is vitally important. "Face" is an outgrowth of the rigid centuries-old caste systems of Asia, where every individual has duties and social prestige according to the group into which he is born. Anyone in a higher caste or place who stoops to the behavior of a lower immediately has "lost-face"—that is, lowered himself to the level—and is treated accordingly Thus, in Japanese custom, the Emperor never calls upon one of less than imperial status, because to do so automatically indicates that his power is less than that of the person called upon.

For this reason, the mere fact that Hirohito has made that call will indicate to his people, more strongly than any other part of the occupation, that Japan is now completely dependent upon the authority and will of MacArthur and the governments which he represents. It is complete ceremonial proof to them and the world that their country has been decisively defeated.

Now that people are easing up on wartime economies, how about restoring front license plates for cars? They would make law enforcement easier, and would make the job of picking out the family bus in a parking lot less of a serious industry.

FIRST CHOICE

Upon the fickle winds of chance
Careers of men must swing,
For singers often want to dance
And dancers want to sing.
Whatever be the task men find
To fashion or to hew,
There is another heart and mind
Have always wished to do.

There's many a teacher in the schools
Would rather paint or write.
The actor longs to work with tools
Mechanics sing at night.
Against the labors of the day,
To which men grow resigned,
Are other forms of work or play
To please the heart and mind.

Thus, some who toil at lathe and bench
Give heart to violins,
The skillful man with plane and wrench
Would preach us from our sins.
There's none of us, though high or low,
But hopes his lifetime through
That some day freedom he will know
For all the heart would do.

GIFTS AND SALVAGE

The young woman who waited at the grocery counter to buy a package of soap flakes to give a friend for a wedding present had something. Moreover, the bride was going to get something she would really appreciate—not quite so exclusive and distinctive a gift as a half-pound of butter would have been several months ago, but still a treasure.

And speaking of soap flakes—what about saving fats? The fighting part of the war is over, but the shortage part is still here, there and everywhere. Soap is still short over most of the world. Saving the fats helps to shorten this shortage. The butcher will give four red points for them from now on for a while, too. The motto for every housewife should be:

Save the fats and enlarge the soap supply.

FUTURE DEFENSE

It will be interesting and illuminating to watch the result of the voluntary enlistment bill passed by the U. S. Senate last week and previously passed by the House. It was framed to allow for a period as short as six months, and so may be accepted more cheerfully than the recent war-time periods would be. But there might develop a state of mind hostile or indifferent to enlistment.

Anything of that sort would be very unfortunate. The present war is over, but there is no assurance against new wars breaking out. It would be a great pity, and also a peril, if five or ten or twenty years from now our nation should find itself obliged to start all over again and spend a lot of precious time in preparation for facing a new foe.

SCIENCE - THEN WHAT?

What with our two great modern inventions, radar and television, by which we shall soon be able to see anywhere and talk to people anywhere, many of us seem to think we are lassoing the future and getting a clinch on the ultimate realities, and will soon be able to know everything worth knowing and do everything worth doing. But it would be a very foolish assumption. For the world and the stuff it is made of are so vast and varied that it seems unlikely we shall ever reach the end of knowledge and possible achievements. We may be destined to learn more and more facts and processes as long as this world lasts, and even then may leave an immense amount of facts still undiscovered.

People, however, may tire of elaborate processes and learning in general, and decide to turn back again to the simple life. And they may be disturbed and annoyed if they find that they can't—that they are caught in a chain of progress from which there is no turning. Then they may start wondering whether progress is worth while.

Eventually, they may turn again to religion, in a more real sense than this present generation exemplifies.

CAPT. WM. HOGEWOOD IN CHARGE OF ARMY RECRUITING OFFICE

A United States army recruiting office, servicing four counties, opened this week in Room 410 of the State National Bank building, Beaton and Collin streets, Corsicana. It will be open each day from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Capt. William W. Hogewood, recruiting officer in chage of the office, will be assisted by Lieut. William S. Grace and eight enlisted men, returnees from the fighting fronts. Capt. Hogewood himself spent 23 months in the Aleutians with the 86th AAA Gun Battalion, and has been an infantry instructor at Camp Maxey, Paris, since his return.

In addition to the main office, a sub-station will be open on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at the United States Employment Service office. The local recruiting personnel will service Navarro, Freestone, Limestone and Hill counties.

"Returning combat service men will be replaced here at home and abroad by men now enlisting or re-enlisting in the regular army," Capt Hogewood said. "Uncle Sam is calling for volunteers, 70,000 in the Eighth Service Command alone, to assist in the establishment and maintenance of a peaceful world."

The regular army offers young men the opportunity of education, travel, technical training, steady pay and a secure life, the recruiting officer asserted. Men 18 to 34 years of age are eligible for enlistment if they meet the physical requirements.

Men up to 45 years of age who have seen previous service with the army and who have been discharged under the "point system" may re-enlist in the same grade as that held at time of discharge, provided re-enlistment is effected within 20 days from date of discharge, Capt. Hogewood revealed. Full information concerning initial enlistment or re-enlistment may be obtained at the recruiting office in Corsicana.

WORK STOPPAGE VOTE REQUESTED OF NLRB BY MACHINIST UNION

A request to conduct a vote among employees of the American Well and Prospecting Company to determine whether it is desired to stop work has been forwarded to the National Labor Relations Board, E. L. Barnes, recording secretary, Navarro Lodge No. 1217, International Association of Machinists revealed Friday. An announcement was made that a mass meeting of the employees of the company (a Bethlehem subsidiary) would be held at the county courthouse Sunday at 2 p.m.

Barnes stressed the importance of those engaged in the manufacturing, production and maintenance work to attend the meeting Sunday afternoon.

The local union requested the NLRB to conduct a vote of the employees under the provisions of the War Labor Disputes Act to determine if the employees desired to stop for the following reasons set out in a communication addressed to the National Labor Relations Board, Washington, on Sept. 24, 1945--for the alleged failure of this company to negotiate to a conclusion in good faith the following issues for an agreement between the company and the union--consist of the bargaining unit; union security; hours of service rules; pay rates for overtime, Sunday and holiday service; reduction of forces; seniority rules; handling of grievances; vacations; job classification, wage rates and shift premiums, apprenticeship rules; management functions; safety and health; prohibition of strikes and lockouts; leave of absence, including unavoidable absence, and effective date of agreement.

The union official outlined the nine months time elapsing in an unsuccessful effort to reach an agreement between labor and management at the local plant.

The 1944 agreement between the company and the union expired February 17, 1945, and numerous conferences, proposals, counter proposals, and hearings have been held without a definite agreement being reached, the brief of the situation recites.

HOME BUILDING IN CORSICANA SLOWED; MATERIAL SCARCE

Although home building will be wide open after October 15, Corsicana can not look forward to any increased construction work until next spring, in the opinion of local material dealers.

There is practically no lumber for sale in Corsicana and until labor difficulties are settled at the mills in East Texas and elsewhere lumber dealers expect very little to reach the city.

The lifting of wartime regulations on October 15 should open up to home builders, material dealers and contractors the opportunity they have been awaiting since pre-war days to supply the home needs of families in this area, but the materials just aren't available.

The Federal Housing Administration has been notified by Washington headquarters of two highly significant events:

First, removal of WPB War Conservation Order L-41. This makes it possible, so far as the government is concerned, for home construction to proceed on a peace-time basis.

Second, relaxation of the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation W. This will enable home owners to repair and modernize their properties on the financial terms available to them before the war.

"We'll be glad to sell what we have, but we don't have very much," said one lumber store manager.

Shortage of skilled manpower in the Corsicana area also will retard the building program. The inflationary trend in the real estate market is also expected to cast a shadow over the bright prospect.

Mrs. A. L. Slaughter Named College Board

Mrs. A. L. Slaughter, wife of the mayor of University Park, Dallas, has been elected to the board of trustees of Austin College, Sherman. Mrs. Slaughter was reared and educated in Sherman, but is well known in Corsicana, as her husband was reared in Corsicana.

Mayor and Mrs. Slaughter frequently visit the mayor's brother, W. E. Slaughter, and other relatives in Corsicana.

Mrs. J. J. Castles left Thursday for San Antonio, where she will meet her son, Corp. James W. Castles, who is returning from two and one-half years' service in the European Theater of Operations. While in San Antonio, she will visit in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Roosink.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR W. H. MANVILLE WERE HELD SUNDAY

Funeral services for W. H. Manville, aged 40 years, who died in a Mexia hospital Saturday morning, were held from the Corley Funeral Home chapel Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial was at Pursley. The rites were conducted by Rev. Jack Goff, pastor of the Northside Baptist church. Manville was critically injured Friday afternoon when a car in which he was riding got out of control two miles north of Mexia and crashed into a ravine. Floyd Lewis, 28, and Grady Lewis, 18, both employees of the Corsicana Cotton Mills, also occupants of the car, escaped with minor injuries.

Ask the Expert

By W. P. Brown
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Should you be tempted to buy medicine solely upon the recommendation of friends or advertising claims, ask a well known and trusted druggist if he can vouch for it.

It is not likely that he will advise any medication without your first seeing your physician. The more serious your malady appears to be the less chance there is of your druggist recommending self-medication.

Too many people have worsened simple cases by taking medicines unsuited to the particular case. Each case is its own problem, to be treated as such by the physician.

And since he is naturally concerned in the efficacy of his prescription, follow his advice in choosing a druggist to fill it.

curity, etc., approximated $30,000, Mueller said.

Visitors introduced included Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Carney of Tyler and County Commissioner Fred M. Copeland of Pursley.

W. P. McCammon, who was president of the Chamber of Commerce in 1937 when the Fair was started in a rented tent, outlined earlier fairs, including one when he was a youth at the race tracks in Southeast Corsicana, and later one held on the Allison properties when rains caused huge losses and inconveniences. He outlined his conferences relative to the need of a fair association and plant with R. W. Knight, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and his appointing J. N. Edens as chairman of a committee to recommend plans and specifications.

He credited Knight with pushing the Fair idea and in conclusion he predicted that the people of Corsicana and Navarro county would support an expansion program to make the local Fair an outastanding plant.

Public Contributed.

J. M. Dyer, who headed the committee to raise $20,000 by public subscription, expressed pleasure of his group with the rodeo arena and the Fair set-up. He said the rodeo had made money each year and concluded that his committee did not raise the entire $20,000 assigned it.

W. E. McKinney has put on every rodeo since its beginning and credited his associates as being responsible for the success each year, and ranked as the third best in Texas. The First National Bank and Texas Power and Light Company was credited by McKinney as being responsible for the Fair being out of debt.

The three managers of the Fair since its organiaztion were Knight, Bob Dillard and Mueller. Mrs. Virginia Freeman was introduced and complimented for her work. Mrs. Carney, the former Miss Alma Burke of Corsicana, was praised for her work while an employee of the Fair and Chamber of Commerce during the early years of the Fair.

Knight Praised Fair

R. W. Knight, manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, formerly of Corsicana, said that Saturday night's party was a landmark in the life of this community, and praised the teamwork of local citizens as causing the building of the Fair, and complimented the association for keeping experienced chairmen at the key positions. He said that the original plans call for six or seven buildings, and asserted that at least two were needed by the time the 1946 exposition is held.

Reynolds overrode the contention of the chief prosecutor, Maj. Robert M. Kerr of Portland, Ore., that the proceedings were nothing like those of any ordinary court of law and that no detailed statement of charges was required.

Despite the general tone of the charges, Kerr left no doubt but that the prosecution was seeking the death penalty and mplied that the requested bill of particulars would supply "more than enough details."

tarian, concurrently chief cabinet secretary.

Joji Matsumoto, 68, parliamentarian.

Tatsuo Wawai, diplomat, holdover president of the board of information.

Holding a cabinet post without the rank of a minister is Mataru Narasashk, 44, parliamentarian who is president of the board of legislation.

Two Blunt Deadlines.

The new government has two blunt deadlines to meet:

Political prisoners must be released by Oct. 10; and reports on removal of thought police and repeal of liberty-restricting laws are due by Oct. 15, when demobilization also is to be completed. Meanwhile there is the growing spector of famine; and frank skepticism of the press.

Demobilization of the last Japanese remaining under arms in the homeland now is only a matter of days, allied headquarters announced today, noting that nearly 2,000,000 had laid down their arms by Oct. 1.

Shidehara indicated a cautious start on his pressing problems by taking two and a half days to complete his cabinet. He told interviewers frankly that he had been out of domestic political affairs for so long that he would depend heavily upon political advisers.

Slight Comfort for Liberals.

Newly-risinng liberal parties probably can draw only slight comfort from the makeup of the new government, however. It is predominantly politician, observers noted—for the first time since 1937—and its liberalism probably does not extend to the socialism professed by the more aggressive of the new parties.

Domei said one allied order—to eliminate political or thought police—already is being met, and that "the nation's entire political police" has resigned, including 1,238 officers and key officials in the home ministry.

MacArthur meanwhile called for a full accounting of stocks and production of narcotics, asking a sweeping inventory of Japan's chemical industry, and allowed a 25-day period for completion of previously-ordered reports on health.

Resigned Premier Prince Higashi Kuni told newsmen today that Tojo's plans for the attack on Pearl Harbor had in general been known to Emperor Hirohito—but that the emperor had expected a formal declaration of war to precede the attack.

Resigned Jap Premier Alibis For Hirohito

TOKYO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Resigned Premier Prince Higashi-Kuni said today Emperor Hirohito knew in advance the general outline of the Japanese plan to strike Pearl Harbor, but that he understood "the United States would bed uly notified prior to commencement of armed action."

Replying to a question that had been pending since a press conference Sept. 18, the outgoing premier said the Emperor affixed his signature to an imperial rescript declaring war on the United States at 11:30 a. m., Dec. 8, 1941, Tokyo time.

That was late afternoon of Dec. 7 in Honolulu declared ended by CIO United Automobile Workers officials and they said members would be back to work today. With the promised return of the strikers, the Ford Motor Company said it was recalling thousands of its workers and expressed hope all 50,000 could be called back in another week.

In Washington, Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach called a second meeting of representatives of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and bituminous operators in efforts to halt the work stoppages in some 600 mines.

The operators have told Lewis they won't talk about recognizing the union until the miners go back to work. Lewis refused to halt the spreading strikes.

The nation's second biggest stoppage was the two weeks old strike of 61,000 lumber AFL workers in tthe Pacific Northwest, but 40,000 CIO workers, remained on their jobs pending a meeting with operators and Federal Conciliators Thursday to discuss their wage dispute.

Longshoremen Still Out.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The thousands of longshoremen whose strike has tied up shipping in New York harbor for the past week, failed to return to work as scheduled this morning.

Eugene Sampson, business manager for Local 791 of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, which led the walkout of an estimated 35,000 to 60,000 men last Monday, said his local had adopted a policy of "no contract, no work and the government can step in at any time it gets ready."

lutely necessary to keep abreast of the times" to acquire such an airport, and in further remarks, said the city commission had "unofficially" agreed to build a hangar and said that dirt should be moved and everything done so that this city could qualify in securing governmental airport appropriations. He said the officials termed the soil ideal on the site, and said sod runways would be used at first.

W. V. Mowlan, engineer, estimated that between 5,000 and 6,000 yards of dirt would be necessary to be moved now (by the county). Mowlam and Nicholson exhibited drawings and maps of the airport runways, buildings, hangars, etc. including a restaurant, etc.

The matter was taken under advisement by the court with commissioners speaking as if interested in the proposition.

The September reports of the health unit, county agents and home agents were accepted and filed.

P. and S. Hospital Expansion

Dr. Gurley H. Sanders and Dr. O. C. Bowmer of the hospital board appeared before the court with reference to present and future needs at the P. and S. Hospital in an expansion program.

In the beginning of his remarks Dr. Sanders said "The hospital is going as nicely as it could under the present set-up", and pointed out that it is carrying a load twice as large as a few years ago.

He urged the utilizing of medical talent here and to furnish a complete service to the people of the county without the necessity of going outside the county for hospital and medical care. He urged the making of Corsicana attractive to medical specialists to locate here and mentioned the fact that the P. and S. Hospital was a fine thing from a business standpoint as it grosses better than $50,000 business per year.

Isolation Ward Needed

Dr. Sanders said that an immediate isolation ward was needed as there is not one in the county and sugegsted that with the changing in he hall and plumbing in the wards, such isolation quarters could be provided. He also said that negro patients should have better quarters provided and that the present wing used by the negroes should be returned to the use it was donated for the Corsicana citizens—a baby and children's ward. He said a negro delivery room and some private rooms were needed.

Dr. Sanders spoke of opposition to the purchase of the first portable X-Ray machine several years ago—the later purchasing of a larger and more powerful unit etc., and in conclusion, the physician said that the board wants to co-operate with the couny and not make burdensome requests. but wanted to provide the best facilitis the county can afford its citizens in a hospital way. He said that the permanent improvement levy might be increased for that purpose in the future.

Dr. O. C. Bowmer, also a member of the hospital board, said that "sooner or later the hospital will need a new wing of private rooms." He said that twenty additional private rooms, from which much of the revenue is derived. is desired.

The court rescinded an order recently enacted authorizing the cashing of a $10,000 bond because a large discount was necessary.

COTTON

While no official estimate will be given until December, the department said the production of cotton seed—a source of vegetable oil—should be about 4,030,000 tons This estimate is based on the average ratio of lint cotton to cotton seed for the past five years. Cottonseed production last year totaled 4,941,000 tons.

Cotton crop conditions as of Oct. 1 were described as follows:

"In Louisiana, Mississippi and Central and Eastern Texas, open bolls showed more weevil damage than had been anticipated, and indicated production declined. In Northwest Texas, hot, dry winds damaged late planted cotton. Jrospects in Arkansas show no change, but in Oklahoma, dry, hot weather followed by rain of flood proportions damaged the crop very seriously."

The department said the crop is extremely late and that per cent ginned to date is near a record low.

MRS. GEO. T. JESTER HAS MOST ENVIABLE S.S. TEACHER RECORD

Mrs. Geo. T. Jester. was installed as a teacher in the First Methodist Church school for her 64th consecutive year, at the regular church service Sunday morning. Mrs. Jester, who was given special recognition by the pastor, Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, was accompanied to the rostum by her son Beauford Jester, who is chairman of the board of trustees of the church and now serving as a railroad commissioner The pastor stated that he thought this was a National record of service in Methodism as a teacher. All other officers and teachers of the church school were also installed at this service. Mrs. Jester in a short talk stated that she had been born into the church and thanked all who had co-operated with her through the years in her teaching experience.

World Wide Communion was observed with many taking communion and a special communion offering was made for chaplain work and work among the local needy. The pastor was assisted by Dr. N. R. Stone. The choir brought special music.

Rally Day was observed in Sunday school. The pastor preached at the night hour from the subject "Mad About Something". After stating many shortcomings of church members, lack of church attendance, the liquor and other evils, he stated that he hoped that Church people would get mad enough about some things so that they would do their part in the correction of same.

In a very impressive candle light service officers for the new year of the Methodist Youth Fellowship were installed by the pastor.

Thirty-one men heard Guy M. Gibson teach the Brotherhood bible class; Glen Thompson taught the Young Men's bible class; Mrs. Clifford Tatum taught the young people's department. Elbert Walkers class of boys had charge of the program in the intermediate department; the Youth Fellowship met in the afternoon.

A meeting of the executive committee of the board of stewards was held in the afternoon in the pastor's office. Boy Scouts meet tonight. Choir rehearsal Wednesday night.

ATOMIC BOMB

L. G. looked to some associates, and also was the name of a famous railroad train.

General Groves probably felt like the Lone Ranger when it fell to him to make some of the import*and decisions*, as when he decided that plutonium, the new explosive metal, should be made out of common uranium 238.

Plutonium was number four among the ways to get the material for a bomb. There was at first some doubt whether to proceed down that fourth road. It was pure alchemy, completely new. It might not be needed if anyone of the others succeeded.

To Take No Chances.

The decision was to take no chances, to do the maximum, and it paid handsomely. For the plutonium success multiplied by 100 fold the world's supply of explosive atoms for atomic power, regardless of bomb rseults.

General Groves is called soft-spoken by many people. But a few smile superciliously and say it isn't true, that he is a big driver. He drove, hard.

If General Groves was the go man, Col. Nichols was the do man. He is medium height, blond, 37, a West Pointer, magnetic, always courteous and with time for his men.

Much-Travelled.

He has traveled 100,000 miles a year each year. This is because of letters which could not be mailed. Only he and Groves had full entree into various phases of the project.

Nichols works fast. Early in the war Dr Henry T Wensel, of the National Bureau of Standards, was sent to see Nichols to talk over some possible service to the army. Nichols welcomed Wensel with a smile and:

"Come here. This is your office, there is your desk, that is your files, and there's work for you in them. We have been waiting for you."

Never a written authorization to this day. Dr. Wensel is chief of the research control section at Oak Ridge.

(Tomorrow—Crime control in a hush-hush town.)

Relatives Of Dead Negro Being Sought

NAVARRO COUNTY GIRLS' 4-H CLUBS PLAN ACTIVE YEAR

1946 YEARBOOKS READY FOR DISTRIBUTION, MISS MILLICAN ANNOUNCES

Navarro county's girls 4-H Clubs' 1946 Yearbooks have been completed and were ready for distribution Monday, Miss Jo Ann Millican, assistant Home Demonstration agent in charge of the Girls' 4-H Club program, announced.

Symbolic of the well-rounded program carried out in the 4-H Club organizations which strive for full development of youthful abilities, the new yearbook is complete in its outline of the activities of the year.

Club Motto.

"To Make the Best Better," is the club motto printed on the flyleaf, followed by a copy of the club pledge and club prayer.

Goals for the clothing demonstrator and the berry demonstrator are emphasized in the year's program, with programs designed to assist the young club members in preparation and care of a suitable wardrobe, and in the production of a good berry orchard and preservation of the berries.

Demonstrations by the county agent and assistant agent listed for the year nclude "Fancy Stitches," "Let's Help Santa Claus," "Let's Plant Berries," "Perk Up With Flowers," and "Let's Make a Scarf."

Program Topics.

Among the program topic are "That School Girl Complexion," "Up to Dates for Boys and Girls," "Those Shining Tresses," "Pity the Family," and "Fighting Our Clothng Enemies."

The 1946 yearbook outlines the girls' 4-H club programs already begun in Navarro county. Under the direction of Miss Millican reorganization of the girls' clubs was initiated last week, with 4-H clubs organized at Richland, Petty's Chapel, Roane, Bryan, Barry and Powell.

Plans are for organization of clubs the week of Oct. 8-13 at Zion's Rest, Emhouse, Long Prairie, Kerens, Alliance Hall, and Purdon.

Meetings Scheduled.

Organization at Dawson, Rice, Pickett, Frost, and Blooming Grove has been scheduled by Miss Millican for the third week in October, with organization meetings at Mildred and Navarro scheduled during the fourth week to complete girls 4-H club organization in the county.

Election of officers and enrollment of new members are the main features of the October meetings. The real club work designed for 4-H members, who pledge their Heads to clearer thinking, Hands to greater service, Heart to truer loyalty and finer sympathy, and Health to efficient living, will begin in November, with the assistant county agent meeting with each club for regular meetings throughout the year.

OWIU, said the policy of the International Union shall be to extend to the United States Navy representatives 10 per cent cooperation.

"The fight of the union against wage cuts and for the reduction of the work week shall continue," he said. "It is our contention that through the reduction of the work week with the same take-home pay that the returning veterans and war workers will have a greater opportunity for securing jobs which will insure decent living conditions."

Drillers Vote Strike

At Odessa, local 413 of the OWIU announced Saturday night that the drilling department of the local had voted a strike. At least 12 pickets bearing placards were stationed in Ector and Winkler counties yesterday but M. Wtaggart of the Odessa American said drilling operaions had not been hampered. A report from Midland headquarters for 156 oil companies operating in the Permain Basin said no oil rigs were shut down today although pickets were stationed at entrants of leases Another report, from Upton county, said no strike had been called from there.

L. B. Cooper, secretary of Odessa's local, blamed the called strike on "the refusal of the American Association of Oil Well Drilling Contractors to grant union recognition and colelctive bargaining rights."

Wage Scale High

There was no immediate comment from oil company officials.

Cooper said the scale of wages among members of the association varied from $1.50 to $1.87 per hour.

In the Permain Basin one of the great oil fields of the nation, are about 14,000 wells and approximately 350 new oil tests now are being drilled.

The drilling department membership of local 413 was estimated at 1,000 men.

OWIU members have been picketing oil lease entrances in Winkler county since Thursday, a report from Kermit, Texas, said, but no wells have been shut down.

sian delegation, or whether all had reached Berlin.

Former Attorney General Francis Biddle, American judge for the international court, landed at Tempelhof airdrome. His arrival completed the American delegation.

The United States will have the leading role at the trial.

Justice Robert H. Jackson, chief American prosecutor, whose staff has developed a major part of the evidence, will prosecute a broad conspiracy charge constituting the first count against the defendants.

The count, a major one in the bulky 43-page folio of indictments, deals with the chronological development of Nazilism from its birth through its machinations for world domination, and accuses the defendants of conspiring to commit the offenses listed in counts two, three and four.

Britain will prosecute on the second count, under which the defendants are charged with waging a war of aggression.

The charge of committing war crimes—covering violations of the rules of war—is set down in count three. Russia will prosecute those crimes committed in the East and France those committed in the West.

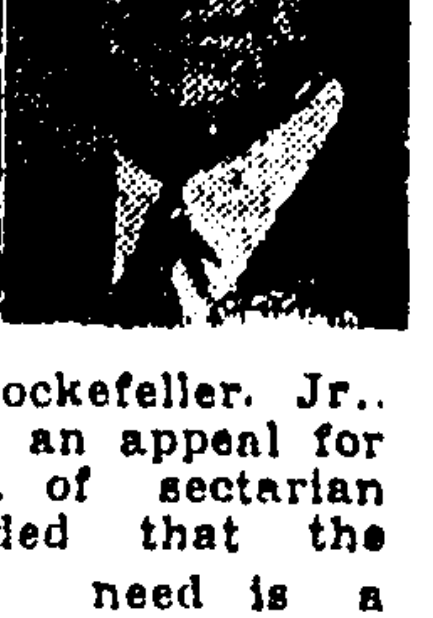
JAMES A. JOHNSON
MINISTER
WESTSIDE
CHURCH OF CHRIST



John D. Rockefeller, Jr., recently made an appeal for the eradiction of sectarian lines and added that the great world need is a "Church of the Living God".

It wouud be a good thing as he says, if sectarianism should vanish from the earth. The appeal, however, for the establishment of a "church of the Living God" is an oversight; for there is such a church already in existence.

That glorious church established on the first Pentecost after Jesus' resurrection exists today. The church of Christ, as it is also called in Scripture, has Chirst as its only head just as it did when established. It has the same law it had then—the word of God alone. It still has the same apostles, and the same Holy Spirit works within. Its local congeragtions still have their overseers known as elders, pastors, or bishops; and their servants known as deacons. Its preachers are still its evangelists. It worships today just as it did two thousand years ago without a single innovation in doctrine or practice.

It is the same ancient church doing the Lord's business in the same ancient way.

You are cordially invited to all services at—

Legal Accusations.

"What, go back there and be shouted at some more?"

Laval is accused of intelligence with the enemy and attacking the internal security of the state while serving in the Vichy regime of former Marshal Petain.

Gen. Andre Doyen, tall and erect military governor of Lyon and head of the French delegation to the armistice commission in July of 1941, testified the Germans annexed Alsace and Lorraine and that a large area of Northern France was ceded to Belgium "in violation of the armistice clauses."

He charged that Laval arranged the Montoire meeting of Hitler and Petain.

He accused Laval of handing over to Germany the rich French Bor copper mines in Yugoslavia despite frequent protests of the French armistice commission.

victim and ignited but an autopsy showed she was dead before the fire was set, Dr. W. A. Newton, Beaumont health officer said.

Kern stated that the victim, daughter of a Cleveland, Texas, Baptist preacher and a resident of Houston, was last seen alive Sept. 30. At that time, he reported, Mrs. O. O. McNealy, a friend, walked to a Houston bus stop with Miss Collins. A man drove up and offered Miss Collins a ride to town. She hesitated, then accepted, Mrs. McNealy said the man wore a pair of shell-rimmed glasses.

Friday, in an abandoned automobile near Woodlawn, La., Miss Collin's purse was found. In the automobile also was a brief case, Kern said and papers in the case brought the search to a room in Houston. Therea pair of broken shell-rim glasses were found.

Kern said the autopsy established almost positively that Miss Collins had not been criminally attacked but stated that officers speculated she maye haven been strangled or poisoned.

BRYAN BRONCOS IN DECISIVE VICTORY OVER TIGERS 26-6

HALFBACK POWERS PROVED TO BE THE STAR OF DISTRICT TUSSLE

By PAUL MOORE,
Sun Sports Editor

Bryan Broncos broke into the win column Friday night, 26-6, after losing the first three games of the season when they outclassed and outfought the Corsicana Bengals at Tiger Field.

The outstanding feature of the game was the manner in which the Bryan line throttled the Corsicana offensive efforts, holding the Bengals to 41 yards rushing while losisng 33 from scrimmage. Bryan rolled up an impressive total of 287 yards rushing while losing 14. Corsicana did not seriously threaten to win the game, although they fought the visitors hard during most of the tilt.

Bryan forged into the lead in the first period when Alford passed to Power for 29 yards and a touchdown after Alford had passed to Finley 29 yards to the Corsicana 85-yard stripe. These were the only passes completed by the Bryan contingent.

The game was frequently marred by penalties.

Power was a continual threat to the Bengals and his performance outshone that of the widely-heralded McCartney of the Bryan aggregation, but those seven forwards were the difference.

Burkhart intercepted a pass in the first period. Ganze was hurt as the quarter ended.

Bryan Scored Twice

Bryan scored twice in the second after a 36-yard drive. Powers picked up 9 yards and Wiley ran 37 yards to the Corsicana 8-yard line before he was pulled down by a vicious tackle by Flynn. Powers powered five to the three McCartney failed to gain and Powers on a lateral scored with McCartney converting.

A pass, Flynn to Sharpley, netted 19 yards. Powers bore the brunt of the second touchdown of the period and went over from the right side after a 31-yard jaunt to give the visitors a 19-0 lead. Blakeney stopped Wiley on the Bryan 11-yard stripe with a vicious tackle.

Corsicana's Score

Corsicana gained possession of the ball on her 26. A pass, Burkhart to Clark, was good for 15 and a first down to the Corsicana 40. A yard was made and then Flynn flipped a 19-yard aerial to Clark who gatehred it in on the Bryan 40-yard line and he sped the remaining distance for the touchdown. A bad pass caused Burkhart to be trapped on the attempt for extra point.

The Corsicana band paraded during the half intermision.

Neither club scored in the third quarter as they battled with frequent penalties and substitutions.

Final Touchdown

The final Bryan marker came after a 56-yard march. Tucker ripped away 14 yards and Power circled left end for 23. Tucker made a first down and McCartney made 4 yards in two thrusts at the hard-fighting and low-hitting Tiger line. On the third play, no gain was made and Power crashed over the left end position for the touchdown with Wimpee converting to make the score read, 26-6.

The attendance was not large because of threatening weather conditions and the muddy conditions of streets leading to Tiger Field.

W. R. Carmichael of Bryan, secretary-treasurer of the Texas High School Coaches Association, was a visitor.

WELL KNOWN CORSICANA NEGRO VETERINARIAN WAS EMPLOYED IN TRUSCOTT HOME NEAR CHATFIELD

By LILY RISER
Daily Sun Staff

The next time you give a small boy a lift in your flivver, take the second look—he might turn out to be a lieutenant general, in time.

When Will Coleman, negro veterinarian who has practiced in Corsicana for more than forty years, used to drive the buggy and run errands for a country doctor in the little village of Chatfield, there was a little brown-haired, eager-eyed boy who used to tag after him.

At that time young Will attached no significance to the name of his youthful passenger—nor had the world. But the lad was to go far, much farther than in those rides over rough dirt roads of Navarro county in a "spalding-top" buggy dawn by a frisky brown horse affectionately known as "Snip."

Third Army Commander

Truscott was the name. Lucian K. Truscott, who as a lieutenant general in the Army of the United States this week was made commander of the Third Army and administrator of the Bavarian sector of Allied controlled Europe.

Will Coleman remembers Lieut. Gen. Truscott as a lad of six or eight. Coleman lived at the Truscotts, attending school and serving as handy man about the place after school hours. Dr. Trucsott, who was Lucien Sr., Coleman says, practiced medicine at Chatfield. Mrs. Truscott, the lieutenant general's mother, was a music teacher

They lived at what will be recognized by old-timers as Dr. Pannill's old home near the old Chatfield cemetery, adjoining places then owned by Sam Marshall and Captain Lisman, Coleman recalls.

Three Children in Family

Two young girls, one of whom was known as "Sonny," and young Lucien were the children of the Truscott household at the time Will served as errand boy.

Every time he went after milk and butter or to run an errand Lucien would pop up from nowhere and be ready to go along.

"He was always after me for tobacco," Coleman remembers, and when Will was studying his lessons in the evenings the boy would try slipping the coveted stuff from his pocket.

Another horse owned by the Truscotts was also used to draw the buggy that took Will and his young companion on their excursions about the countryside. He was "Doctor Gee," a race horse purchased by Dr. Truscott from J. E. Whiteselle, well-known horseman of this section. Though a good horse on the job, Dr. Gee was a "mean" animal in the stable. Will recalls one occasion when Dr. Gee jumped at Mrs. Truscott and tried to bite her when she was feeding him. But with a presence of mind few possess she jammed her thumbs into the horse's eyes and sent Dr. Gee in swift retreat.

Sister Fell From Tree

He remembers the time Lucien's sister "Sonny" climbed the mulberry tree. It turned out to be a sad affair. Sonny fell out of the tree and broke her collar-bone.

Lucien managed to get by without mishap during the time Will was with them, he said. Coleman seems to recall the Truscott household vividly, and remembers sitting around the fire in the evenings studying his lessons for the next day with young Lucien, then at pre-school age, hanging around to pester him. It is evident that the negro errand boy had a real affection for the brown-haired lad, but he admits it never occurred to him at the time that the boy would grow up to be a famous general.

Coleman himself has gone far since those early days, starting at the bottom of the ladder and climbing to a high and respected place among his fellow citizens. He came to Corsicana in 1901, working at separate times for the Central Texas Grocery Company, for Captain S. A. Pace, and Ben Fortson.

Coleman Sent To School

So impressed were his employers with his ability that they become interested in the future of their youthful employee, making arrangements to send him to school. He obtained a basic knowledge of the use of medicines under the direction of a practicing physician. His former employers sent him to the Ontario Veterinarians' School, Ontario, Canada, and upon completion of his course Coleman returned to Corsicana where he now has a large practice and is considered an authority in his profession.

He is married and has reared a large family. In answer to the question about how many children he has, Will replies slyly, "Just twelve."

There are eight girls and four boys in the Coleman family, all of whom have finished high school. Four of the girls have college degrees. A son is a first year veterinary student at a college in Alabama. Another son is studying for the ministry at Bishop College, Marshall.

Son Killed In War

The Colemans lost a son in the war, Corpl. Clarence Coleman, of the U. S. Army Air Corps, who was killed in action on the Fiji Islands in February, 1944. Sgt. Will Coleman Jr., wounded during the Italian campaign, is still in the service.

Will Coleman has a family and a professional record of which he may certainly be proud. But he is also proud of his new distinction. As soon as folks heard of Truscott's appointment to the important position they began to remember something about Will Coleman having worked for the Truscotts at Chatfield.

"Was that the same family?" they asked Will. "And did he remember the boy, Lucien?"

"Yes, that's the same family," Will tells them, and adds with a mischievous grin, "Why Ah taught that boy to chew!"

W. W. ALDRICH SAYS AMERICAN HELP IS NEEDED IN EUROPE

With return to normal living in Europe based upon the experience of the critical fall and winter ahead, Winthrop W. Aldrich, president of the National War Fund, advised W. V. Harrison of Frost, chairman of the Navarro County War Chest, of the desperate need of continued American help through the final victory campaign of the National War Fund.

Aldrich has just returned from a trip to Europe where he visited England, France, Holland, Czechoslavakia and Germany.

"In my opinion," he reported, "mass starvation and death by freezing are not likely to occur in Europe this winter, but there will be great suffering unless people receive more than the necessities of life in addition to essential food and clothing, unless these necessites are provded by the National Dar Fund.

"In all of the suffering areas of Europe one notices the lack of the ordinary essentials of lise, such as shoes, clothing, soap, kitchen utensils, small tools, needles, nails—and all things which one requires for a bare normal existence.

"The member agencies of the National War Fund have contributed not only to alleviation of human suffering but to good will among nations," he concluded. "It is most important that we continue this work to help those who are desperately trying to rebuild their homes and their lives."

William R. Hay Is Junior Hi Coach

Employment of a physical education instructor and coach at the Corsicana Junior High School was anounced Saturday by W. H. Norwood, superintendent of city schools.

William R. (Bill) Hay, graduate of Abilene High School and Abilene Christian College, is the newest addition to the junior high school faculty and reports for duty Monday.

Graduating from Abilene High School in 1939, Hay attended Abilene Christian College until he went into the armed forces as an aviation pilot in the army. He lacked several courses finishing his college career when he went into the armed service and finished his college work by correspondence before his discharge.

Although participating in all sports, basketball was his main athletic effort, he won four letters as a guard on the courts and was picked as all-Texas conference. He was president of the ACC student body and received a high rating in Who's Who in American Universities and colleges.

Hay is the husband of the former Miss Marjorie Rawlinson of Corsicana.

Information From Navarro County Rationing Board

New military non-directional mud and snow truck tires are now unrationed, effective Oct. 8, according to W. A. Wright, chairman of the Navarro county war price and rationing board.

These tires may be transferred and mounted without certificate, Wright said. Dealers who have such tires in their inventory on Oct. 9 must report number and size of tires to the OPA district director on or before Oct. 22.

The district director will then issue replinishment portions to the dealer, so that his accountable inventory will not be changed, Wright said.

PFC. E. L. COSTLOW, LIBERATED FROM JAP CAMP, NOW IN STATES

SUBJECTED TO BEATINGS AND ABUSE WHILE PRISONER 41 MONTHS

NEW CASTLE ARMY AIR BASE, October 8—(Special)—Two Texans were among the eight former prisoners of war of the Japanese landed here October 4, after being flown from Karachi, India by Crescent Caravan, which is operated by the Ferrying Division's 2d Foreign Transport Group, based here at New Castle.

The Texans were, Corporal J. B. Croft, 3030 Main Street, Dallas Texas, and Pfc. E. L. Costlow, 629 North Main, Corsicana, Texas. Both men ar 32 years of age and were members of the 131st Field Artillery, an old Texas National Guard outfit. Other former prisoners were Walter Beeson, S 1-c and John F. Campbell, GM 2-c United States Navy, and four unidentified Merchant seamen of the US Merchant Marine. The four merchant seamen were on a ship torpedoed by a German submarine and after being prisoners of the Germans for 30 days, were turned over to the Japanese for imprisonment in Java. The two Field Artillerymen were captured in their first battle which took place in March of 1942 at Soebaraja, Java. There were 548 Americans captured at this time, a full Field Artillery Battalion, on March 10 of 1942 after a four day battle which began on the 6th of March, 1942.

Prisoners 41 Months

These men were prisoners of the Japanese in Java for 41 months during which time they were subjected to beatings an dother abuse by the Jap and Korean guards. Some men died from the abuse suffered in this camp. There were only 59 men left in the camp at the time of the Japanese surrender, and they were flown out of Batavia by the Air Transport Command on the 16th and 18th of September, 1944.

The eight men who arrived here spent a total of 76 hours in the air enroute to Wilmington from Batavia .

Their spokesman, Cpl. J. B. Croft, of Dallas, Texas, who is the father of an 11 year old girl, said they worked mostly in the great General Motors assembly plant in Batavia, but some were welders in other shops repairing Japanese vehicles and some were employed in the building of fortifications and air raid shelters. All this work was done on a starvation diet and with the abuse of the guards forever present.

Harshness Disappeared

Corporal Croft stated that the harshness of the guards disappeared as soon as news of the surrender came, and the corporal was once invited to drink and dine with his former Jap guard when he entered a restaurant in Batavia after being liberated. After the corporal's refusal to accept the invitation the Jap guard thrust twenty dollars in Jap occupation money into his hand, but the corporal tossed it upon another table and strode from the restaurant. Cpl. Croft said that Jap occupation money had a very low value, as he was able to spend 4,500 dollars of it in his first nine days of liberation. A good meal cost at least 35 of these occupation dollars in any restaurant.

Royally Entertained

The former prisoners were royally entertained in every place they stopped along the long way home. The Red Cross had arranged a big reception for them in Calcutta, Casablanca, and other cities in which they stopped. They were billeted at the best hotels. Corporal Croft stated that he food and drink was of he best and came in unlimited quantities. He has gained 35 pounds since liberation and 13 pounds of this was gained in Calcutta, in the 10 days he was there. Croft stated that the Japs had destroyed all the rubber plantations on Java, and removed all types of machinery. Cpl. Croft and Pfc. Costlow proceeded to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C., later in the day.

Cpl. Charlie Flynn Arrives In States

Cpl. Charlie L. Flynn, U. S. Army, veteran of six years in the service and two years in the European Theater of Operations, has arrived at Camp Shanks, N. Y., and will be sent to San Antonio where he will be discharged under the point system, according to information received in long distance telephone conversation Friday noon by his wife, Mrs. Margie French Flynn, 1120 West Sixth avenue.

Serving 11 months on Atlantic convoy duty, Flynn at the present is on detached service with an anti-aircraft outfit. He wears the ETO, Good Conduct, Pre-Pearl Harbor Ribbons, six Battle Stars, Arrowhead, and five service stripes.

Lt. Col. Sanders En Route Home

Lieut. Col. Lynn Sanders, who has served during the past two years in the India-Burma-China theater of operations, left China en route to the United States last week and can be expected to arrive home soon, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanders were informed Friday in a communication from a friend of their son who has already arrived in the United States.

IN BELGIUM — Pfc. James F. Stroud, U. S. Army, has written his mother, Mrs. Eva Greer, 917 East Tenth Avenue, that he is in Belgium. Entering the service in December, 1943, he sailed for overseas duty July 29, 1944. He attended the local schools.

Air Medal Has Been Awarded To Coy W. M'Clendon

DALLAS, Oct. 5.—(Spl.)—Coy Wayne McClendon, Aviation Ordnance First Class, USNR, son of Mr. W. L. McClendon, Box 181, Richland, Texas, has been awarded the Air Medal "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight as Turret Gunner of Torpedo Bomber attached to Composite Squadron Seventy-Five, operating from the USS Ommaney Bay againnst enemy Japanese forces in the Battle off Samar, Philippine Islands, October 25, 1944."

The citation, signed by Secretary of the Navy James Forrestall, continues:

"Skillfully operating his weapon during two attacks against a powerful Japanese Task Group, McClendon defied intense enemy anti-aircraft fire to inflict heavy damage on warships within range of his gun. Separated from his formation during retirement, he courageously withstood an attack by four enemy fighters and, remaining dogegdly at his post despite the furious storm of deadly projectiles tearing at his craft succeeded in shooting down a hostile plane and prevented others from making accurate runs. By his daring courage and superb technical ability, McClendon contributed essentially to the success of his squadron's vital mission and his loyal devotion to duty was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Big Advertising For Big Texas Is Planned Here

Big advertising for big Texas is in the making.

Now that the men and women in the armed forces of the United States have hoisted the Lone Star Flag around the world a mammoth advertising campaign exploiting the resources of the biggest state in the Union is expected to be launched throughout the country at an early date.

Marvin C. Lunde, Dallas, chairman of the temporary Texas Advertising Committee, Tenth District Advertising Federation of America, was in Corsicana today and conferred with Lowry Martin to discuss plans for a permanent statewide organization to promote an extensive advertising program for the purpose of impressing on the nation the vast natural resources and unexcelled opportunities ashore, afloat, in the air and beneath the surface that abound in this former republic.

Lunde pointed out that the tentative program of the Texas Advertising Committee calls for a five year to ten year aggressive advertising and publicity campaign.

"A state-wide meeting of the major committee representing all sections of Texas is to be called in Austin as soon as the temporary groundwork is completed," Lunde said. "This committee will go into permanent organization."

State Senator James E. Taylor, Sixth District, and Clifford Cate, president of the Corsicana Rotary Club attended the conference.

STATE HOME LADS IN WIN OVER TRINIDAD ON FRIDAY EVENING

PACED BY FOUR BACKFIELD LETTERMEN STATE HOME WINS 33-13

Paced by four fast backfield lettermen, Baker, Jones, Pillows and Brown, the State Home Lads defeated the Trinidad Trojans 33 to 13 for their second District 18-B conference football victory Friday night on Garitty Field.

Trinidad was seriously handicapped by the lack of reserves but the eleven iron men fought gamely throughout the contest. Bunn McGee and Williams, Trojan backfield men, played a whale of a game and if they had had a line in front of them that could give them just a bit of good blocking they would go places with mail. Bunn is a quick kick artist of no mean ability. He averaged 25 yards per kick but the Lads usually ran them back almost to the starting point, nullifying his efforts to keep his team out of trouble.

Count Early

The Lads took the opening kick-off and in three plays had hit the pay dirt. Pillows returned the kickoff 25 yards, a try at center gained only a yard or so then Brown ran 35 yards for a touchdown. Jones carried the ball over for the extra point. The second touchdown followed quickly. The Trojan backfield let the kick off get through and it rolled to their two yard line. Bunn got off a high spiraling punt that went to the 35 yard line but Brown returned it almost to the Trojan goal line. The fine return, however, was nullified by a penalty against the Lads which placed the ball on the Trojan 35 yard line. Baker promptly took it back to the 11 and then Jones went around right end for the touchdown. Pillows ran the ball over for the extra point.

The Trojans took the kick-off around the 25 yard line but were unable to gain. Bunn quick kicked 25 yards and the ball was returned to the line of scrimmage by Brown. Again a fine run-back by the Lads was nullified by a 15-yard penalty for holding, putting the ball in play about mid-field. Jones made 25 over right tackle. Pillows picked up 11 yards through the line and then Jones went over for the third touchdown of the quarter. Jones ran the extra point over, making the score 21 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Substitutes Move In

A string of substitutes took the field for the Lads as the second quarter stared. Neither team scored in that quarter. The State Home lost a chance when they fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Trojans on their own 11 yard line. The play had started on the Trinidad 3 yard line. Parker recovered the fumble for the Trojans. The Trojans worked the ball upfield for their first down of the game, but promptly lost all they had gained and more when they fumbled a lateral pass for a loss of 15 yards. Bunn punted 45 yards and the Lads had started another march down field but a 15 yard clipping penalty put a stop to it just before the half ended.

Bunn returned the kick-off 25 yards to open the second half McGee made eight yards through the line but the Lads' defense stiffened and the Trojans were forced to punt. McGee kicked the ball 30 yards and Brown returned it 10. Jones made 25 yards through the line. An attempted pass by Jones was incomplete and on a fake pass formation Baker took the ball on the old Statue of Liberty play and made 20 yards. Brown, on the next play, went over for a touchdown. The attempted kick by Bottoms was wide.

Make First Down

The Trojans made a first down after receiving the kickoff following the touchdown, but McGee fumbled on the next play and lost eight yards. Bunn punted 35 yards and Brown returned it 20. Pillows on the next play broke through the line for 55 yards and a touchdown. Bunn knocked down the attempted pass for the extra point.

Coach Irby sent in a new team for the Lads and then the Trojans started a march that netted their first touchdown. Williams returned the kickoff to the Lads' 35 yard line. Bunn went through the middle of the line for 7 and McGee picked up enough for a first down on the State Home 20 yard line as the quarter ended with the score 33 to 0 in favor of the Lads.

Bunn took the ball to the 11 yard line on an off tackle play and McGee circled left end for the touchdown. Bunn failed to kick the extra point.

Passed to Touchdown

The Lads took the kick-off and worked the ball to midfield where they lost in on downs. The Trojans then opened up a passing attack that paid off. McGee pitched one to Parker that was good for 20 yards. Bunn then passed to Parker for 20 yards more and he ran it over for a touchdown. McGee carried the ball over for the extra point.

On the kick-off Bunn booted the ball 60 yards and Phillips, who picked it up on his own goal line returned it 25 yards before being downed. Wheeler and Phillips put together enough yardage on the next three plays for a first down but Trinidad recovered a Lad fumble on the State Home 35 yard line. The State Home "A" team returned to the field and Bunn was forced to punt. The ball went out on the nine yard line from which point the Lads took over. With less than a minute left to play they worked the ball down to the Trinidad 30 yard line before the game ended with Jones attempting a pass.

The Stae Home starting line is composed of Bottoms, Turner, Litton, Wagley, Bridges, Rawls and Carrington, all lettermen. It is a tough, rugged line that is hard to dent. They help make the backfield look good.
